Continue the learning:

When school lets out remind your child that the brain needs to continue working hard. Have them read and write daily about anything they want. An idea could be to keep a summer daily journal of all of the things they do and places they go.

Continuando el aprendizaje:

Cuando terminen las clases recuérdale a su hijo que el cerebro tiene que seguir trabajando duro. Pídeles que lean y escriban todos los días de lo que quieran. Una idea podría ser la de llevar un diario de verano donde escribe de todas las cosas que hace y de los lugares que visita.
